

Deuteronomy

Big Idea

God reveals the way to live an abundant life now - are we?

Scripture: Deuteronomy 10:12-16; 30:15-20; John 10:10

Discussion Questions

Have you seen stubbornness displayed (perhaps your own) recently? What was your reaction to it?

Although stubbornness can sometimes be viewed positively, in this week's passage it is viewed negatively. Why? What determines whether being stubborn is a positive or negative quality?

What has challenged you, changed you or confused you from this week's sermon or the Scripture listed above?

Stubbornness can often be rooted in things like:

- Misconceptions about the nature of self, life or others
- A fear and sense of insecurity
- A strategy to protect one's self

What reasons does Moses give the people as a motivation to change their hearts and stop being stubborn?

In what area is God calling you to a more abundant life?

What reasons do you have to stop being stubborn about it?