

Judges

Big Idea

In the midst of these cycles, God wanted Gideon to live a life of significance; He wants that for you too.

Scripture: Judges 6-7

Discussion Questions

Can you describe a time when you may have been in a cycle similar to the Israelites?

What has challenged you, changed you or confused you from this week's sermon or the Scripture listed above?

Are you more likely to find your identity in your circumstances or in what God says about you? What influences or shapes your thoughts about yourself?

How does the source of your identity affect your willingness to either live life in faith or live life waiting for more of something (more strength, more courage, more _____)?

When you are facing something difficult, do you tend to focus more on your resources or your weaknesses? How do you bring your faith in God into the equation?

Do you recall a time in your life where it seemed your resources were being reduced at the same time your need was growing? How has that shaped your faith?

God gave Gideon an impossible task and wanted to be glorified (honored) through the victory. How can you face your current situation with faith in a way that will glorify God in the outcome?