

Song of Solomon

Big Idea

Song of Solomon, or Song of Songs, is a celebration of the mystery and power of sexual love. It weaves together the beauty of the Lover and his Beloved, as well as the joy of seeking and then finding one's love. In the final chapter, the author concludes that "love is as strong as death". It is beautiful and also dangerous. Using much garden imagery, it points to love untainted by sin, where husband and wife are vulnerable yet unified and safe.

Scripture: Song of Solomon 2:1-17
