Discussion Questions

What has challenged you, changed you or confused you from this week's sermon or the book of Titus?

1. This week's sermon has helped us:
  - Remember what we should do
    - Because what we do and say matters
  - Remember what we were
    - We are free to take responsibility for poor choices
  - Remember what God did for us
    - So, we can humbly ask for God's mercy and forgiveness
  - Remember what God expects of us
    - We get to face the future with faith
  - Any of those three could be focused on in a healthy or unhealthy (biblical or unbiblical) way. Of those three, on which do you tend to focus? And on a scale of 1-10, how healthy would you say your focus is?
  - How about when you engage with others? Which of those 3 would people tend to hear/feel/sense from you?
2. Another way to view God's standard (His expectations) is that, instead of measuring ourselves against God's standard, we compare ourselves with others - either lifting ourselves up over others or beating ourselves down.
  - If you've ever engaged in this, and we all have, how helpful/unhelpful has it been? Why?
3. Where could you use God's encouragement right now?
4. Where is the Holy Spirit challenging you to grow this week?

May the memory of Jesus' completed work of redemption be an anchor for your soul this week, and may you share that good news with those around you!
