Discussion Questions

1. What has challenged you, changed you or confused you from this week's sermon or the Scriptures in it?
2. In the sermon, the big point was, "Anytime you say yes to God, Satan will oppose you."
  - What are some of the implications of that statement?
  - What does that mean about suffering?
  - About God's love for us?
  - How does that impact your perspective on your life?
3. The Israelites who were following Nehemiah and rebuilding the wall faced all kinds of difficulty: anger, mocking, threats, fatigue, skepticism, fear
  - Can you identify with them?
  - When feeling that way, what else suffers? (Could be marriage relationship, work ethic, friendships, integrity, etc.)
4. What were some of the "combat tools" pointed to in the sermon?
  - They kept praying
  - They kept at it (perseverance)
  - They stayed watchful
  - They remembered the Lord
5. Which of those do you need right now?
  - What do you need to think/do about it?
6. Is there a friend or loved one who needs one of those right now?
  - What can you do to help them? (Pray, send a card/text, have a conversation, etc.)
